The NATIONAL ADAPTATION FORUM connects and fosters these efforts while propagating adaptation in new regions and supporting the networks that make it happen. But the FORUM cannot happen without your support! Your sponsorship creates opportunities to collaborate, elevate, and innovate the adaptation field.

WHY SPONSOR THE NATIONAL ADAPTATION FORUM?

The National Adaptation Forum is the largest convening of professionals, community members, and students interested in climate change adaptation in North America. The three-day Forum provides a vital opportunity for knowledge sharing and innovation around climate change adaptation science, policy and practice, including examples from the field, visualization tools critical for decision making, and trainings that move participants to action. Sessions and trainings address a range of local, national and international cross-sectoral issues from all perspectives on climate adaptation.

By sponsoring the Forum, your organization will be recognized as a climate change adaptation leader to an audience of over 1,000 participants from all 50 US states, Canada, Mexico and other countries.
